Empire Thanksgiving Shoot.

Jamea Wiggins, the Empire rafter has secured 250 turkeys, ducks, geese, chickens and pigeons for a grand Thanksgiving shoot and has placed the fee down to the lowest rates.

Turkeys, 200 yards, 50c a shot. Geese at the same rate. Chickens at a distance of 50 yards, shotguns being used, with nothing heavier than No. 6 shot. 25 cents a shot. Birds must be knocked prostrate. Parlor rifle shooting, 50 yards, at turkey's head, 25 cents per shot.

The sport will be conducted on a square basis and judges will decide differences on the spot.

No one is barred from the contest and a special invitation is extended the Carson and Virginia sharpshooters.

In the evening a grand masquerade ball will be given in Wiggins' hall. Costumes can be secured in the ante-room of the hall and a line of new stables have been put up for visitors who come with horses. Mrs. Kohle, the caterer will spread a Thanksgiving turkey banquet during the dance and is located but a few steps from the pavilion. o5td

The Chicago Fair.

Are you going to the World's Fair? Everybody is going if able. And now everybody is able, because an incorporation has been formed in Chicago, composed of the leading citizens and most responsible men there, and they offer the most enticing inducements at the cheapest possible rates.

They sell a ticket for $131, that absolutely covers everything, on the installment plan. This certificate entitles the holder to first class transportation to and from Chicago from Carson during the Fair, transportation to and from depot and hotels for self and baggage, six admissions to the Fair with your lunch on the grounds, fourth, first class board and lodging for six days in their own commodious hotels and lastly their competent guides will see that all holders are shown around and miss nothing. Think of the crowded condition of Chicago during the fair and then of the ease and comfort of this method.

Only $131 for everything and that as follows: $6 down at time of signing contract, balance in equal monthly installments from time of signing till April 1st, 1893.

It is a good bank company as holders may have their money back at any time, less the first six for expenses, etc. Certificates are transferable and non-forfeitable.

If you are interested get and read one of the small hand circulars. Agent in Carson

Wanted—By a young man, a room in a private family. Address X care of this office. tf

The eclipse of the moon on Sunday evening was not sufficiently advertised to draw much of a crowd.

The members of the Capitol Minstrel company are requested to meet at the Court House at 8 o'clock, sharp.

Charged with Embezzlement.

Yesterday Arthur Leonard was arrested on a charge preferred by Robert Hofer, cashier of the Bullion Bank, of the embezzlement of $2,900. The shortage took place since the Bank purchased the Wells-Fargo agency. Of the amount taken $1000 he says was lost at faro in Reno, and $800 in this city. The rest went to wine and women.

The Pacific Surety Company bonded Leonard for $2,000 with the Wells Fargo Company so that the company only lose the balance. The fact that the young man has been living beyond his means has been a matter of comment for some time. Last evening he was examined before the Justice Court.

He was bound over to appear before the Grand Jury with bail fixed at $3000. In default of payment he was remanded to the custody of the Sheriff.

COMING OUT OF THEIR HOLES.

The Real Backers of the News Beginning to Show Up.

The editor of the APPEAL has always had abiding faith in the fact that the backers of the News who have been ambushed for some weeks behind a former young employee of this office, would finally be unable to refrain from showing their hands.

They made a very indecent exposure of themselves on Sunday morning in an attack on the APPEAL, which they term a "caved down newspaper."

Now, the real facts of the case are that they are smarting with rage and disappointment because they have been unable by threats, bribery and intimidation to succeed in "caving" this journal down the bank.

The following paragraph in the article is the particular thing that shows the real parties behind the News. It says of the APPEAL:

Once upon a time that concern insulted and bothered the good people of Ormsby until they were tired of the obnoxious sheet that was hurting the interests of the community. It has offended sensitive people to such an extent that some of them could not endure to live where it was tolerated.

The APPEAL never yet insulted or bothered any of the good people of Ormsby. It has always made it a point to show up the frauds, hypocrites, fraudulent bankrupts, incompetent officials, petty larceny thieves, rape fiends and blackmailers (male and female) in Carson, and some of these "sensitive" individuals have become so annoyed at these pen pictures of themselves that they have left the city for other points, where they will probably be able to impose upon other communities as they have this, until their records become as rank as they were here.

No doubt it was the extreme "sensitiveness" of "Shingle" Davis that caused him to light out of the city to escape the penitentiary. A paper that is regarded as the subsidized mouth-piece of rape fiends by the entire community presents but a pitiable spectacle when it brags of its independence and popularity.

Some weeks ago the press of the News broke down and in its dilemma its ostensible proprietor called at this office and begged us to print its edition for a week.

There being no other press in the city that would fit the forms of the News, the paper would have been obliged to suspend publication had it not been for the assistance rendered.

We printed his edition for a week and furnished him with paper, and roller composition.

A part of the account is still unsettled and the bother of collecting a portion of it has been more than this whole account is worth.

It is stated "the APPEAL is termed a blackmailing sheet."

If any of the responsible people who are behind the News, will come out from behind the bush and so term it over their signatures, we will give them ample opportunity to prove it in the District Court.

If anybody in Carson knows of the APPEAL having blackmailed anyone it is their business to lay it before the Grand Jury. If the District Attorney is anxious to show his speed in a case, this would present an excellent opportunity.

Meanwhile the APPEAL will continue its war on the gilt edged criminal element of this city, taking the big tands in the puddle in their regular order and getting down to the little rascals who bate fish hooks with corn to capture their neighbors chickens and the petty thieves who steal two-dollar-and-a-half lottery tickets from their employers.

A Pertinent Query.

Ed. APPEAL:—I notice the News is bragging of its great prosperity. It has owed me $2.50 for about six weeks, and I can't get the money. Seems to me it was doing so well it would settle up with its carriers.

WILL MURRAY.

THE GRAND JURORS SPEAK.

Some of the Inside Facts in the Summerfield Case.

His greatness of mind, goodness of heart, want of exercise for the benefit of his health and his sympathetic sympathy, influenced our fish eat District Attorney to hunt up the parties who gave their testimony in "State of Nevada vs. A. H. Davis," and other parties who did not, run them into his office one by one, examine one by one, (not under oath) reduce their conversation to writing, and then take said conversation (in writing) before the Court as genuine testimony and have the said case dismissed, by reading the said conversations to his Honor, the Judge, as genuine sworn testimony. Probably the said District Attorney's mind is composed of brains that cannot be made to understand, that evidence not under oath, is not considered first class, but we in our ignorance, believe such to be the fact. Suffice it, by his great legal ability and the written conversations that he presented to the Court as genuine, he accomplished his object.

The Grand Jury would have ignored the indictment had they no other evidence than that which the said District Attorney produced for the enlightenment of the Court. The evidence of the young girl, upon which the indictment was found, the said great and good District Attorney seems to have known nothing about. He was asked by a member of the Grand Jury, his reasons for dismissing the case, and the great and good man answered, that he had taken the witnesses, whom the Grand Jury would have, and did ignore, into his office and examined them, and he did not think that a conviction could be had upon such evidence. Then the said Grand Juror asked him if he had examined the girl and he said he had not; that her name was not on the indictment. The said Grand Juror then went to the Clerk's office and examined the said indictment and found the girl's name was on the indictment, proving that the great and good man had not seen the indictment, but had in his great wisdom guessed at the whole business. That is in all probability the proper thing for all such great and good men to do.

After many days his Honor called the said Grand Jury together to investigate the matter and upon questioning the said District Attorney he said that his reason for having the case dismissed was that the indictment was defective, and that the bond given for the appearance of the girl witness was worthless, all of which he found out long after the case had been dismissed, not by his own great legal knowledge but probably through the knowledge of another attorney who was retained to defend the said Davis, and had obtained accepted or got possession of the said indictment fraudulently or it may be that the great man exhibited the said indictment to the said attorney. The exoneration that the said District Attorney boasts of does not seem to set well on his stomach.

Neither the bond or indictment were produced in the dismissal of the case nor are they mentioned on the record of the court; nor were they produced in evidence in the dismissal of said case. Had the great man known at the time that they were worthless as he alleges, he certainly would have produced them before the Court.

Truly he is a great man; not like Caesar stained with blood, but only great as he is g-o-o-d.

There is no Secret

About your buying shoes to advantage. You may not know any more about the quality of leather than you do about a lost comet but that is no reason why you should get "stuck." Either you get your money's worth or you don't and if you don't is your own fault. We are in the shoe business because we happen to know something about shoes and leather. It is "bread and butter" to us, therefore we make it a STUDY. Of the knowledge you get as much benefit as though you possessed it yourself for we place it entirely in your disposal and if you think that other houses can quote lower prices than we do, come and look at the goods and and prices. We will put our time against yours and we feel confident that the result will be a mutual benefit.
